

Forensic Managed Care Network, Research and Quality Improvement Group

Invites you to our 2nd Seminar Series event on:

Forensic community accommodation needs and approaches in Northern Ireland

Canada Room and Council Chamber
Lanyon Building, Queen's University Belfast

2.00pm - 5.00pm on Wednesday 18th March 2020

Programme

- 2.00pm Welcome and introduction – Dr Mark Linden, Co-Chair of the Research and Quality Improvement Group
- 2.00pm - 2.20pm Overview of the Forensic Managed Care Network – Noel McDonald, Forensic Managed Care Network Manager
- 2.20pm - 2.40pm The need for specialist forensic accommodation in Northern Ireland - Dr Geraldine O'Hare, Director of Rehabilitation, Probation Board Northern Ireland.
- 2.40pm - 3.00pm Designing and implementing specialist services in England – Richard Broughton, Director of Care and Development, GB & IOM, Praxis Care.
- 3.00pm - 3.15pm Tea and coffee
- 3.15pm - 3.30pm Practice issues in Northern Ireland – Brian Tierney & Jacqueline Hanna, Inspire.
- 3.30pm - 3.45pm Intellectual and developmental disabilities – Noreen McComiskey, Specialist Services.
- 3.45pm - 4.00pm Applied examples – Fiona Pollock, Senior Social Worker, Shannon Clinic
- 4.00pm - 4.45pm Discussion on three main issues – assessment of need, service models and service planning.
- 4.45pm - 5.00pm Concluding comments and next steps – Dr Rick Bunn, Co-Chair of the Research and Quality Improvement Group.

Registration is free, but places are limited. Please register at -

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/forensic-community-accommodation-needs-and-approaches-in-northern-ireland-tickets-95231950327>
